A FREAK CHILD .- A wonderful girl baby was born last Friday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Catherwood, of Newark, N. J. The child has neither arms nor legs. Its entire physique consis'; of a head and body, both well developed and of normal size. The child seems strong and healthy, and from present appearances, will live to ma urity. This is the fourth child born to the Catherwoods. They have been married seven years. All their children have been girls. The eldest died in infancy, but the others, now three and two years old, respectively, are healthy and nor-mal in every respect. Mrs. Frances Watts, who attended Mrs. Catherwood, uttered an exclamation of surprise when she first saw the baby, but she concealed the cause of it by pretending that she was marveling at the wonderful growth of fire, long black hair on the child's head. She swathed the tiny girl in many bandages, and so kept all knowledge of her curious malformation from the mother for many hours. She broke the news to Mrs. Catherwood yesterlay morning. The mother was overcome, but she soon ralifed and became reconciled to the inevitable. Scores of neighbors thronged to the Catherwood home yesterday and examined the treak baby. "I don't know what we shall do," said Mrs. Catherwood. My bu-band is a sateneimaker, and he has been out of work for months. Now we are almost destitute, and I don't know how we shall take care of this baby." Samuel Catherwood, the father of the child, is sober and industrious, and his neighbors are all trying

THE GRANDFATHER CLAUSE .-- A dispatch from Richmond says:

o help him find employment.

"The democratic leaders of Virginia are interested in the validity of the 'grandlather" clauses of the constitu-It can be stated upon high authority that the wish of the most influentia among them is that this important featurs of the franchise question may be tested by the Federal court of last resort before the Virginia constitutional convention meets. The party in is W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard platform adopted at Norfolk pledged Gibson. that no white man should be disfranchised under the new constitution proposed to be adopted. Should the preme Court declare against the legality of this "grandfather" provision of the Louisiana and North Carolina constituvirginia in carrying out their pledge to this matter. This is the reason urged why it is important to have a deision of the court of final resort before his State adopts its new organic law. These conditions are, it is believed, being urged as reasons against the calling of an extra session of the Legislature.

After the Presidential election this whole subject will no doubt be freely and frankly discussed before the people The policy now is to hold it in beyonce until national issues are disposed of."

LOST BABY PLAYING WITH A BEAR Lizzie, the three-year-old dau; hter of Lizzie, the three-year-old dau; hter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Self, of Dallas, Philadelphia, Pa. sug17 6m&twf Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Self, of Dallas, ents late Saturday afternoon. They had left her playing on the sidewalk it front of the family home on Canton street. After searching for the child for an hour they notified the police de-partment and a gen-ral search through-out the city was instituted. The the-ory of kidnapping the child was about accepted by all. At 7 o'clock Sund y morning two mounted policemen riding through the city park where the Zoo is situated dis covered Lizzie seated in front of the large iron-grated cage in which the big black bear is confi ed. The child's feet and arms were extended inside the cage between the bars of the structure and the little one was gleefully prattling to and petting the big brute all unconscious of danger and oblivious to the distress and anxiety her absence had caused. Lizz'e was taken to headquarters and restored to her parents. Chief Price, who used to be a Texas-ranger, remarked to the child's parents: "If that had been me or it one of the force had taken such liberties with 'Big Ben' be would have chew isn arm or leg off for us, to say the least."
